

A top-down view of a wooden desk covered with various school supplies. At the top, a row of sharpened colored pencils in various colors (yellow, green, blue, purple, red) is lined up. Below them, there are several pens and pencils in different colors (blue, orange, yellow, green). A blue pen is prominent in the lower right. There are also several paper clips in pink, green, and blue. A yellow sticky note is placed in the center. A blue paperclip is also visible. A green pencil sharpener and a pencil shavings are in the lower center. A blue pencil is in the lower left. A red notebook is partially visible on the left side. A ruler is also visible on the left. The word "CAVIARDAGE" is written in bold, black, italicized letters across the center of the image.

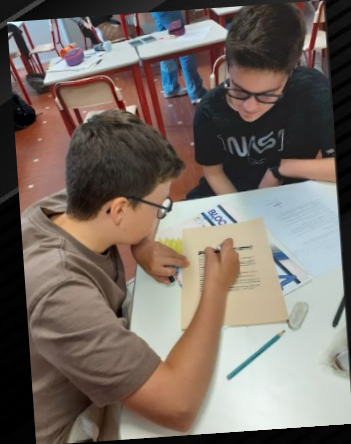

CAVIARDAGE

Read the text. Choose the words that strike you. Highlight them. Black out the rest of the text. Is there a connection between your words? Can you see a new image?

Find a title if you want. Create a text-image composition. Value and embellish your words. Inserting drawings, colors, clippings, shades, signs, graphics, objects etc.

At first yesterday we didn't know what caviardage was: now we understand that we can start from a page of a novel to create a new piece of art, a poem and a drawing inspired by poetry.